Component Mission

The National Counterintelligence and Security Center's (NCSC) National Intelligence Manager - Counterintelligence Directorate (NIM-CI) supports the Director of NCSC in his role as the National Counterintelligence Executive (NCIX) for the Federal Government. Our primary mission is to deepen the U.S. Government's understanding of foreign intelligence entities' plans, intentions, capabilities, tradecraft, and operations targeting U.S. national interests and sensitive information and assets. We lead the IC's mission to identify and counter foreign intelligence threats by incorporating CI into national-level decision making and leading integrated analysis, collection, and CI initiatives to address priority intelligence gaps and CI mission needs. Our Directorate is growing to address the expanding CI threat. We are looking for qualified personnel to:

- Lead the identification of CI threats, priorities, and gaps
- Lead and guide IC analysis, collection, and CI initiatives to address priority intelligence gaps and counter foreign intelligence threats
- Lead the IC in assessing progress against key intelligence gaps
- Lead the development of solutions to address CI resource and capability needs
- Advance CI within regional/functional NIM portfolios

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Support CI community mission integration by developing CI strategies, implementation plans, the Unifying Intelligence Strategy for CI, and a State of the CI mission report.
- Initiate, cultivate, and maintain productive working relationships with colleagues, experts, IC members, policy committees, and law enforcement agencies as appropriate and use these relationships to share information of interest; attend internal and external training, seminars, or conferences on broad or more strategic subject areas.
- Recognize, value, build, and leverage diverse collaborative networks with the ODNI and across the IC.
- Author the monthly CI Mission Newsletter.
- Support briefings to senior IC officials and other major stakeholders on collaboration progress, issues and challenges.
